BOARD OF LAW EXAMINERS WEB PAGE ADDED TO SUPREME COURT SITE

LANSING, MI, July 12, 2002 – A new web page for the state Board of Law Examiners has been linked to the Michigan Supreme Court’s web site, the Court announced today.

The new web page “is a resource for anyone who seeks admission to the practice of law in Michigan,” said Corbin R. Davis, Clerk of the Michigan Supreme Court. The Supreme Court Clerk serves as Assistant Secretary to the Board, providing administrative support.

The Board of Law Examiners page, which may be reached through the “One Court of Justice” web site at www.courts.michigan.gov, includes rules for admission to the practice of law. The page also offers information about bar examinations, admission requirements, and recertification, as well as a list of frequently asked questions.

Members of the Board of Law Examiners are Oakland County Circuit Judge Rae Lee Chabot, Pontiac, president of the Board; Charles F. Behler, Lansing; Linda V. Parker, Detroit; William E. Rheaume, Lansing; and Louis A. Smith, Traverse City.
